Food and Drink in the Library Policy

- Food and drink are permitted only in the Galleria and in the Commuter Lounge of Melville Library.
- No food/drink (except drinking water) should be consumed or brought into any reading rooms.
- If patrons come to reading rooms with food/drink, they should either consume outside of the library or discard before entering.
- Patrons may deposit their food/drink on side table or counter top near entrances at their own risk (maybe discarded by staff).

July 2014