

Stony Brook University Open Access Policy

This campus-wide policy was adopted by the SBU University Senate on February 6, 2017. The policy demonstrates our commitment to sharing the fruits of research and scholarship as widely as possible. Participation increases readership and citation rates.

Key Features of the Policy

Increases readership and citation rates.

Honors academic freedom and copyright.

Facilitates compliance with NIH and other public access policies.

Scholarly articles and conference proceedings.

Accepted manuscripts after peer review.

Opt out for any article—no questions asked.

Three Easy Options

1. Upload accepted manuscripts to SBU Academic Commons.

2. Send a link to open access versions of the articles (e.g., at PMC, SSRN, arXiv, PLOS, or another site).

3. Send accepted manuscripts to your liaison librarian.
